25TH WONCA WORLD CONFERENCE

16 – 17 SEPTEMBER 2025

LISBON CONGRESS CENTRE - CCL

We are excited to introduce the Young Doctors Movement (YDM) Preconference, taking place on September 16–17, 2025. Following that, you can participate in the 25th WONCA World Conference at the Lisbon Congress Center, from September 17–21, 2025. This will be a highly relevant event for Family Medicine, bringing together professionals from around the world to discuss the challenges and innovations in Primary Care.

The Preconference will include the possibility of an observational internship on September 15, 2025, at various Health Units in the Lisbon and Tagus Valley region. Additionally, participants can visit a primary healthcare project or a non-governmental organization before or after their exchange, gaining a deeper insight into key aspects of the Portuguese healthcare system.

To reach the largest number of participants while ensuring equitable access to the exchange, we kindly ask that the following steps be followed:

1
